The Berard Team had the honor of transporting a piece of naval history. The story began over 9 years ago when a dedicated group of volunteers, many of them veterans, embarked on a restoration project to restore the PT 305. The team spent countless hours working tirelessly on the craft to bring her to her former glory. The boat was restored in the WWII Museum in New Orleans, Louisiana, and will be housed on Lake Pontchartrain. When her restoration was complete, Berard got the call to move her from the WWII Museum through the streets of New Orleans to the Mississippi River where she was lifted onto a barge for transport to a shipyard where the final outfitting will take place before hitting the water once again. The move was quite the spectacle with hundreds of spectators and news outlets from around the nation walking beside her in a true New Orleans style parade.

Robin Berard

Corporate Secretary Director of Accounting

An employee of Berard Transportation since the 1980's, Robin Berard has had many duties throughout the years. In addition to learning about the industry from her husband, Randy, Robin discussed legal issues with her father in law, founder Roy Berard, Sr. She can be credited with purchasing the company's first computer and setting up accounting for the first time using software. She has handled all aspects of the business's insurance. After taking on insurance, it was natural for her to begin handling business contracts, safety issues, safety reporting, the Berard Transportation retirement plan, amongst many other things. Today, Robin serves as Corporate Secretary and Director of Accounting.

Robin has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from the University of Louisiana – Lafayette. She passed the Certified Public Accounting Exam in 1984, the State of Louisiana Notary Exam in 1985, and the Global Business Professional Exam in 2013. She is the proud mother of 2 civil engineers, Brett Berard and Ellion Berard Self, and the proud grandmother of two granddaughters, Easton & Elle Berard. When not at work, Robin enjoys traveling, reading, social functions, dance classes, yoga, Pilates, and other forms of exercise. Robin says, "My years at Berard Transportation have broadened my knowledge of business and financial matters. The growth that we have experienced with the 3rd generation of Berards has been phenomenal and look forward to the future"!
